

Froxfield Celebrates The Platinum Jubilee

The extra-long Bank Holiday Weekend of June 2 - 5 marks the official celebration of the 70 Years on the throne of Her Majesty The Queen and a weekend of Community events are planned for Froxfield.

Big Platinum Jubilee Afternoon Tea Friday June 3rd

You are invited to a big Community Afternoon Tea, 2pm.

Trestle tables on the green (inside the Memorial Hall if wet). Free teas and coffees and squash with scones & cream, jam and strawberries.

We hope as many of those attending will also 'bring a plate' of their own favourite sandwiches and other tea-time dainties!

Children's Games and 'Create a Crown' competition.

A Platinum Jubilee prize for the best regal headwear!

Commemorative Jubilee Medal free for all children.

Froxfield Beer & Music Festival Saturday June 4th

Get ready to rock in our annual celebration of music, feasting and fun

Kicks off at 1pm with the Phoenix Brass Band and the dedication of Froxfield's Tree for the Queen's Canopy. Music and Morris Dancing through the afternoon.

Jubilee Hog Roast alongside the regular barbecue. All food £2.50 a serving.

All proceeds from the Hog Roast go to a local charity.

Floral Festival in All Saints Church

Get creative to decorate the Church with floral displays celebrating the Queen's 70 year reign. Choose a jubilee theme or celebrate a country of the Commonwealth!

The plan is to fill our Church with festive flowers.

Jubilee Hymns & Pimms — Sunday Service

Comes together at All Saints for a special service to say 'Thank You' for the Queen's 70 years of dedicated service, at 4pm. Linger on after the service and share a glass of classic English Pimms.
